

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, October 3rd, 2024

LINDERA strengthens its position in luxury and ultra-luxury fittings with the acquisition of SIGébène.

The Lindera Group – a renowned French manufacturer and designer – today announces the acquisition of SIGébène, an “Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant” (“living heritage company” certified), located in Nogent-le-Roi (Eure-et-Loir department). For more than 40 years it has specialized in contemporary cabinetry for interior design, serving a prestigious clientele of private individuals. This acquisition is aligned with Lindera’s strategy to strengthen its Lindera Signature division in the luxury and ultra-luxury segment.

Founded in 1983 by Grégoire Milojevitich and now employing 60 people, SIGébène designs and creates contemporary interior spaces.

Recognized for its project engineering services, attention to detail and its finishing expertise, the company has risen to the best levels of fine cabinetry by meeting the demands of national and international clients.

Walnut kitchen and central island in raw stone
– SIGébène

Luxury retail space layout – Lindera Signature

Copper leaf deposition on larch wood
- SUAGE collection - SIGébène

SIGébène joins the Luxury segment of the Lindera Group, Lindera Signature comprising Technics d'Agencement, La Manufacture and Ateliers Muquet. It expands the offering dedicated to high-end markets, encompassing luxury boutiques, hotels, prestigious restaurants and exceptional private residences.

The integration of SIGébène opens up commercial prospects in line with the ambitions of the Lindera Group.

Door in brushed and distressed spruce, custom grip
- SIGébène

All of Lindera Signature's houses share common values and a strong belief in high-quality work and customer satisfaction. Within their workshops, their employees perpetuate the traditional excellence of technical craftsmanship, while drawing on modern tools and the best project management standards in collaboration with their architect and interior-design partners.

Wood finish: oak bar - patinating operation - SIGébène

Patinated gouged material - TOPAZE collection
- SIGébène

“We are extremely proud to be embarking on the next chapter of this extraordinary collective adventure alongside the teams at SIGébène. This is an opportunity to continue developing a great company, to promote a brand and to preserve recognized craftsmanship that embodies tradition, modernity and innovation, not only in France but also internationally”, comment Olivier Jacquier, CEO of the Lindera Group, and Édouard Clavel, General Manager of Lindera Signature.

“I am delighted that SIGébène is joining the Lindera Group. This partnership will help preserve our expertise and our services. It is also an opportunity for our customers to benefit from a more extensive offering, so it is good news all round”, adds Grégoire Milojevitch, founder of SIGébène.

Hotel Plaza layout - Nice - Lindera Signature

Stained walnut dressing room with glass doors and brass frames, integrated lighting - SIGébène

Blue lagoon gold fabric - Lindera Signature

Woven oak patinated with silver leaf - SIGébène

About the Lindera Group

The Lindera Group is a manufacturer and designer organized into four areas of expertise across eight sites, in Annecy, Brive-la-Gaillarde, Carrières-sur-Seine, Colombes, Fresnes, Grigny, Mulhouse and Sofia (Bulgaria). The Group generates more than €70m in revenue from a portfolio of over 220 customers. With 280 employees, the Lindera Group offers services from design thru to installation.

Lindera Signature is the Lindera Group division specialized in creating bespoke spaces for a discerning and refined clientele.

A key player in the luxury and ultra-luxury sector, Lindera Signature stands out for its exceptional artisanal know-how and ability to deliver unique projects, ranging from luxury boutiques to private residences and luxury hotels. Lindera Signature combines tradition and innovation to create spaces of unmatched quality for the most prestigious customers.

Lindera Signature operates through its three houses: Technics d'Agencement (Annecy), Ateliers Muquet (Carrières-sur-Seine), and La Manufacture (Brive-la-Gaillarde).

Websites:
www.lindera.fr
www.sigebene.com

Media contact

Anissa Ourif :
anissa.ourif@lindera.fr

Visuals available on request

About SIGébène

SIGébène is a company specializing in fine contemporary cabinetry and bespoke fittings. For 40 years, it has distinguished itself with its exceptional expertise in creating luxury interiors for private residences.

SIGébène is known for its ability to understand and translate its customers' preferences into exceptional creations, integrating meticulous project management, a multidisciplinary approach, and unique finishing options. This expertise enables the company to meet the highest demands of the luxury sector, with a clientele seeking exclusive fittings.

Smoked liquidambar wall paneling and invisible doors - SIGébène